

Spoken Word Society

Spoken Word Society is a congregation of artists. We open our gates to anyone wanting to tell their side of the story, the things they are desperate to scream off of rooftops and the things they want to simply write and keep to themselves. In that mission, we are indiscriminate.

CLUB GOALS

- introduce newcomers to the fascinating world of Poetry
- provide a forum for more experienced poets

EVENTS

- weekly workshops which explore the world of Poetry and focus on both the written and performance aspects of poetry
 - each workshop will feature that week's theme and a specific technical aspect associated with performance.
- Open Mics and Slams
 - the scope of these events will range from within the club to across multiple universities
