WESTERN CHAMBER MUSIC

Music for those who love it

WHO ARE WE?

Western Chamber Music (WCM) is a community of students who enjoy music in a fun and friendly atmosphere. Our skilled conductors create opportunities to enrich your skills in an enjoyable environment.

WCM provides students with the opportunity to enhance their Western experience by connecting with other musicians with weekly playing time . . . a break from studying and a chance to have fun with other like-minded students!

JOIN THE FUN!

String, woodwind, and brass players of all levels are welcome, as well as percussionists.

No audition required!

After silence, that which comes nearest to expressing the inexpressible is music.

- Aldous Huxley

Orchestra

Conducted by Jennier Cahill, the Orchestra welcomes string and woodwind players of all skill levels. Members enjoy a variety of musical styles, including classical, romance, and modern music.

The orchestra practices weekly on Western campus Sunday evenings.

Jazz Band

The Jazz Band welcomes both beginners and experienced jazz players. The band plays a variety of repertoire, from the swing styles of Count Basie to the energetic music of Buddy Rich.

Weekly rehearsals take place on Sunday evenings from on Western campus.

Not a big group person?

Our small ensembles consist of 2-5 people, where one ensemble member leads weekly practices and repertoire selection. Group allocation is based on experience level and instrumentation.

Looking for leadership opportunities?

Help share your love of music and apply to be a small ensemble leader!

Instruments

Members are responsible for providing their own instruments. If you don't own your own, there are several places in London which provide instrument rentals at reasonable prices.

Concerts

WCM holds one concert each semester, which takes place at Metropolitan United. Members from orchestra, jazz band, and small ensembles collaborate to deliver enjoyable performances for family and friends.
